

ONMEB Guidelines for Rechecking/ Re-evaluation

The following guidelines will be applicable for students applying for Re-checking / Re-evaluation from the annual examination session 2019-20.

A candidate can apply for reevaluation / rechecking after the result is published. However even after applying for such reevaluation / rechecking the candidates can appear in the supplementary examination. In case the result changes consequent upon re-checking or re-valuation, the higher mark secured either after rechecking / reevaluation or supplementary examination shall be taken as the final mark and will be amended accordingly. Fee for rechecking is Rs. 100/- per subject and for Re-evaluation it is Rs. 1000/- per paper.

Guidelines / FAQs for Re-Checking :

(1) Who are eligible for Re-Checking ?

Any candidate, who has secured less marks than his /her expectation can apply for re-checking of that paper(s) by giving requisite fees. The candidate has to approach his /her institution to apply for re-checking. A candidate can apply for max 50% of the theory subjects of a year for re-checking.

(2) What is meant by Re-Checking ?

In Re-Checking, answer books are checked just to ensure that all the questions attempted by the candidate have been valued and the marks awarded have been added and have been correctly carried over to the result statement.

(3) What is the time period to apply for Re-Checking ?

Candidates can approach to their institutions within 30 days from the date of publication of result (notification date). No extension of date will be given for this purpose. Application not received by the due date or without the requisite fee shall be rejected. Incomplete application forms will also be rejected.

(4) What is the time period for getting the result of Re-Checking ?

In general it will take 60-75 days after the publication of result or date of Notification of result to get updated in the mark sheet / transcript , if any changes occurs. Students, are advised to download a fresh mark sheet after 75 days of the date of Notification of Result (Annual) from ONMEB website. No separate intimation will be given regarding this. Besides, students can approach their Institutions to get the summary of transcripts of Re-checking results for confirmation.

(5) Whether a failed candidate should fill up forms for Supplementary, though he / she has applied for Re-checking ?

A failed candidate who wishes to apply for re-checking of his answer-books(s) should fill up his /her form to appear supplementary examination, if he/she wants. But applying for re-checking does not confer any changes in marks. So, it is better to appear Supplementary examination.

(6) For a failed candidate applying for re-checking and appearing Supplementary Examination, which mark will be considered ?

A failed candidate, who has applied for re-checking and at the same time appears for Supplementary examination, the highest of the both the marks will be considered.

(7) If, a failed candidate , applied for Re-Checking and does not appear Supplementary, what will happen ?

If a failed candidate, applied for Re-checking, but does not appear for Supplementary and subsequently, there will be no change in his /her marks in the process of Re-checking, then his / her annual result will be final and he/she will appear next year Annual examination as per the ONMEB / INC guidelines as the case may be.

(5) Whether a failed candidate should fill up forms for Supplementary, though he / she has applied for Re- evaluation ?

A failed candidate who wishes to apply for re- evaluation of his/her answer-books(s) should fill up his /her form to appear supplementary examination, if he/she wants. But applying for reevaluation does not confer any changes in marks. So, it is better to appear Supplementary examination.

(6) For a failed candidate applying for re- evaluation and appearing Supplementary Examination, which mark will be considered ?

A failed candidate, who has applied for re- evaluation and at the same time appears for Supplementary examination, the highest of the both the marks will be considered.

(7) What is the method of calculation of Marks of Re-evaluation ?

- (a) Re-evaluation of answer book shall not be allowed in more than one fourth of written papers of examination.
- (b) Re-evaluation is not permitted in the case of practical examinations and internal assessment.
- (c) Re-evaluation shall not be permitted where a student has obtained less than 20% marks in a particular paper.
- (d) After reevaluation the marks may decrease/ increase.
- (e) The result/marks of a candidate will be revised on the basis of re-evaluation score, or if on re-evaluation the character of the result changes (character means 'Fails' to 'to 'Pass' or change in division).
- (f) In case of failure in a subject, if the candidate still remains fail after re-evaluation, the increase/decrease in marks if any, will not be reflected in the marks-sheet/ result sheets since the result remains unaffected.
- (g) If the average marks awarded by the 1st examiners and the new examiners for Re-Evaluation varies from the original award up to 15% of the marks secured earlier, the original award of marks shall remain unchanged.
- (h) If the award of second examiner (re-evaluator) is more than the award of the first examiner subject to a limit of ($>15\% \leq 20\%$) of the maximum marks secured earlier, the same shall be taken as the marks obtained on revaluation. In case the award of second examiner (re-evaluator) exceeds the above limit of 20%, the answer books shall be referred to a third examiner and the average of the two closest award shall be taken into account. If the three awards are uniformly spread, then the middle award shall be taken into account.
- (i) If the award of the second examiner (re-evaluator) is less than of the first examiner up to the extent of 5% of the maximum marks prescribed for the paper, the award of the first examiner shall stand. In case the award of the second examiner (re-evaluator) is less than that of the first examiner & the decrease is between 5% to 20% of the maximum marks prescribed for the paper, the average of the two awards shall be taken as the marks of revaluation provided the result of the candidate is not affected adversely i.e. he does not fail in an individual paper/subject instead of pass. In such cases the marks shall be decreased to the extent that his result is not affected adversely.

(8) If, a failed candidate , applied for Re- evaluation and does not appear Supplementary, what will happen ?

If a failed candidate, applied for Re-evaluation, but does not appear for Supplementary and subsequently, there is no change in his /her marks in the process of Re- evaluation, then his / her annual result will be final and he/she will appear next year Annual examination.
